

The Weimaraner Association Open Show

25th September 2022

My thanks to the officers and committee of the association for this lovely invitation, it was an extra special appointment for me as I grew up with the breed, one of my earliest memories being in a pushchair at what I now know would have been a breed show.

Temperaments were excellent, complimented by lovely attitudes in all the exhibitors and lovely applause and encouragement from the ringside. A few exhibits disappointingly lacked muscle, heads were varied with some more being more typical and others.

2. Coleman Smilek Sweet Caroline A less mature exhibit than 1 but not incorrect it did however cost her today a little higher on leg she is a lovely silver grey colour and had a great attitude I was particularly taken with her on the move where she was coordinated and covered the ground with ease.

Yearling Bitch (1)

1. Rodgers Sh Ch Minstergate Carnival JW What a treat it was to judge this classy lady once again she continues to go from strength to strength you'd be hard pushed to find a more honest bitch who retains femineity with power and stamina she covers the ground so well and so easily and is a pleasure to go over with correct 12:10 proportions level topline and slightly sloping croup she was by BB and it was my pleasure to later award BIS.

Post Graduate Bitch (4,2)

The most challenging class to judge of the day

1. Cain Schonhund Show Tallulah At Lustamus A mature bitch who scores in body and is very balanced well turned stifles and good movement head was moderately long and had a moderate stop I just felt that more condition and muscle but complete and otherwise sound and pleasing picture.

Limit Bitch (1)

1. Dennis Silverweis Sparkler A flashy striking bitch both on the stack and on the move handled to full advantage and together they make quite the team she scores in a clean neck and good shoulders complimented by straight forelegs and compact feet the smaller ring didn't quite do her movement justice today.

Open Bitch (4,1)

1. Upton-Lovett & Upton Gunalt Lustrous With Roydack Another I have judged before only this time she was more cooperative she possess wonderful body from a clean neck and a good amount of bone I liked her for type and her head and expression and clean and pleasing she effortless and sound on the move unlucky to meet the yearling winner today. RBB.
2. Marr Sh Ch Sharnpilly Grace Kelly at Cleimar A classy shapely lady who put on a very good show a little more upstanding than some but scores in the correct level topline good coat with the correct sheen she has a lovely long easy stride on this occasion I just preferred the type of 1 but I can see that she is a most worthy title holder.
